

By allowing further consolidations of media conglomerates, the FCC will only be serving the interests of mega corporations over those of consumers. You should be concerned about serving the citizens of this country not enriching already obscenely rich corporations. Your actions must serve the consumers and citizens of this democracy not the corporations, who already control too much information. For once, do something in the interest of citizens, and not the corporations.